

HEAD

- “It is our choices ... that show what we truly are, far more than our abilities.” [Albus Dumbledore, J. K. Rowling Harry Potter & the Chamber of Secrets, 1999]. Why do you agree or disagree with this statement?
- Visit the Sport at the Service of Humanity website and learn how this movement began.
- Watch USABA's Blind Soccer Instructional Video #3 on Communication. Find out more about this sport. How has the sporting community adapted to accommodate these athletes?

HEART

- Unpack the Scripture verse. What is it saying?
- Describe how you feel when you have the opportunity to participate in an activity?
- Reflect on a time when you have done what you thought was impossible?

HANDS

- Is sport more inclusive in 2023? Interview your peers and family to gain their insights. Write a paragraph to summarise the information you gathered.
- Design a 'Participation' symbol that could be used in your school to encourage others to get involved.
- Plan your Socktober Event Day and ensure that everyone participates in the planning and the day.

“Start by doing what’s necessary, then do what’s possible, and suddenly you’re doing the impossible.”
– St Francis of Assisi

1 Corinthians 12:12

“For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ.”

Inquiry Question:

What does it mean to be an “insider” or an “outsider”?
