SCRIPTURE LINK

Colossians 1:16

For in him all things in heaven and on earth were created, things visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or powers—all things have been created through him and for him.

INQUIRY QUESTION

How can we connect with creation?

HEAD

- Visit the CSIRO website and look at the Indigenous Seasons Calendar. Why do we only acknowledge four seasons in Australia?
- Find out more about Indigenous Seasons where you live.

HEART

- Have the students break into small groups. Ask each student to share about a natural place in the world they would like to visit and explain why they chose that place.
- Encourage them to think about what makes that place beautiful or special.

READ...

Read about the Creation of the world (Genesis 1-2), and reflect what can we do to keep our planet healthy and clean?

...and be inspired!

HANDS

- Give each child a piece of paper and a pencil. Take them outside to observe and enjoy the beauty of God's creation as they take in the sights, sounds, and feelings around them. Then, invite them to respond by writing or drawing a prayer to God, expressing thanks and wonder for what they've experienced.
